Memorandum of Understanding

Ma Foi Foundation

and

Mannar Thirumalai Naicker College, Pasumalai, Madurai-4

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) sets for the terms and understanding between Ma Foi Foundation and Mannar Thirumalai Naicker College to conduct the Career Ownership Program.

On the request of Mannar Thirumalai Naicker College, Ma Foi Foundation is willing to conduct a training program called 'Career Ownership Program (COP)' for up to 100 selected students.

The program is intended to develop employability skills of the participating students. Maximum of 100 students in the first year of under graduation studies in academic year 2015-2016 will be identified to participate. These students shall be selected from different courses run by the college. A minimum of 50 students are required to start this program. These students will undergo skill development activities till their third year of college. The cost of this program will be borne by Ma Foi Foundation. Students or the college need not pay for this program.

The program consists of classroom activities, self learning activities and volunteering activities. All classroom activities will be conducted within the campus. Trainers for the classroom will be made available by Ma Foi Foundation. The college will provide a smart classroom with necessary infrastructure to facilitate this. The college will also appoint a responsible person to coordinate the program along with Ma Foi Foundation. Self learning activities will be done by the student at their available time and within the schedule. A detailed schedule of activities will be made available to the students and the coordinator before commencement of the program. Volunteering activities are done outside the college campus and will be jointly managed by both organizations.

More details of the activities are explained in Annexure 1.

The primary responsibilities of both organizations are explained in Annexure 2.

Reporting

Ma Foi Foundation will share a half yearly report on the progress of students and the program.

Duration

This MOU is at-will and may be modified by mutual consent of authorized officials from both organizations. This MOU shall become effective upon signature by the authorized officials from both organizations. This MOU will expire by May 2018 once the students finish their third year.
