About the Programme

The Department of Computer Applications organized a Skill Development Programme on "Python for Data Analysis" on 23rd January 2025. Third-year BCA students actively participated in this programme. Mr. Avinesh S. Kumar discussed key concepts of Python for Data Analysis, emphasizing its relevance in today's technological world. He also provided practical examples to enhance understanding. This comprehensive programme focused on enhancing students' skills in data analysis using Python, enabling them to stay industry-relevant. The event featured expert lectures, practical sessions and interactive coding exercises, offering students a holistic learning experience. The Question & Answer session allowed students to clarify their doubts, fostering an engaging learning environment. The session concluded with a round of discussions and a vote of thanks.
