2. An Insightful Journey: On April 8, 2022, III BA students undertook a valuable industrial visit to Theekathir, where they had the privilege of gaining insights from Mr. V. Parameshwaran, the former editor of the newspaper. This enlightening visit provided students with a practical understanding of the newspaper industry's dynamics and operations.

Mr. V. Parameshwaran's expertise and guidance added significant value to the visit as he shared his wealth of knowledge and experience. The industrial visit not only broadened the students' perspectives on the functioning of a newspaper but also offered a unique opportunity to connect theoretical concepts with real-world practices.

Overall, the industrial visit to Theekathir, coupled with Mr. V. Parameshwaran's insights, proved to be an enriching experience for the III BA students, contributing to their academic and professional development.

3. Resonance of Knowledge: The Department of English (SFW) organized a highly informative Guest Lecture titled "Introduction to the Sounds of English" on May 9, 2022. Dr. P. Roopana, Assistant Professor from Government Arts and Science College of Nandanam, served as the distinguished resource person for the session.

During the lecture, Dr. Roopana delved into the intricate aspects of English phonetics, providing students with a foundational understanding of the sounds inherent to the language. The engaging presentation and interactive session allowed participants to grasp the nuances of English pronunciation and phonetics.

The event was not only an enriching academic experience but also a testament to the Department's commitment to providing students with diverse insights and expertise. Dr. P. Roopana's valuable contribution undoubtedly enhanced the students' understanding of the auditory dimensions of the English language.
