

Nayak Period Inscription found near Vinayagar Temple

Vadivelkarai (18 April 2021)

Under the guidance of College Secretary Mr. M.Vijayaraghavan, based on the information given by Mr. Alagumalaikannan a former student of our college, which is native to that village. Dr. Athmanathan, the coordinator of the Centre for Historical Research carried out the field work to the village and found a ruined inscription in the Vinayagar temple there, they confirmed that this inscription belongs to Madurai Nayak period by its auspicious opening (Meikeerthi) text.

